A Pirate's Legend

by Bill Hartsock

Once upon a time
A long time ago,
There was a mighty pirate
And his name was Peg-Leg Joe.

He sailed the seas for riches.
He fought for fortune and fame.
And everyone in every land
Had heard the pirate's name.

Treasure was this pirate's goal.
Wealth his only quest. .
And, of course, as pirates go.
He was the very best.

As wealthy as this pirate was,
His heart was not content.
He couldn't find that special girl.
That's just how his luck went.

But then one day his luck was changed. .
While digging for a chest.
An island princess came around.
The fairest in the West.

She stole his heart in a wink
And brought this pirate laughter.
He stopped his cruel and wicked ways,
And they lived happily ever after.

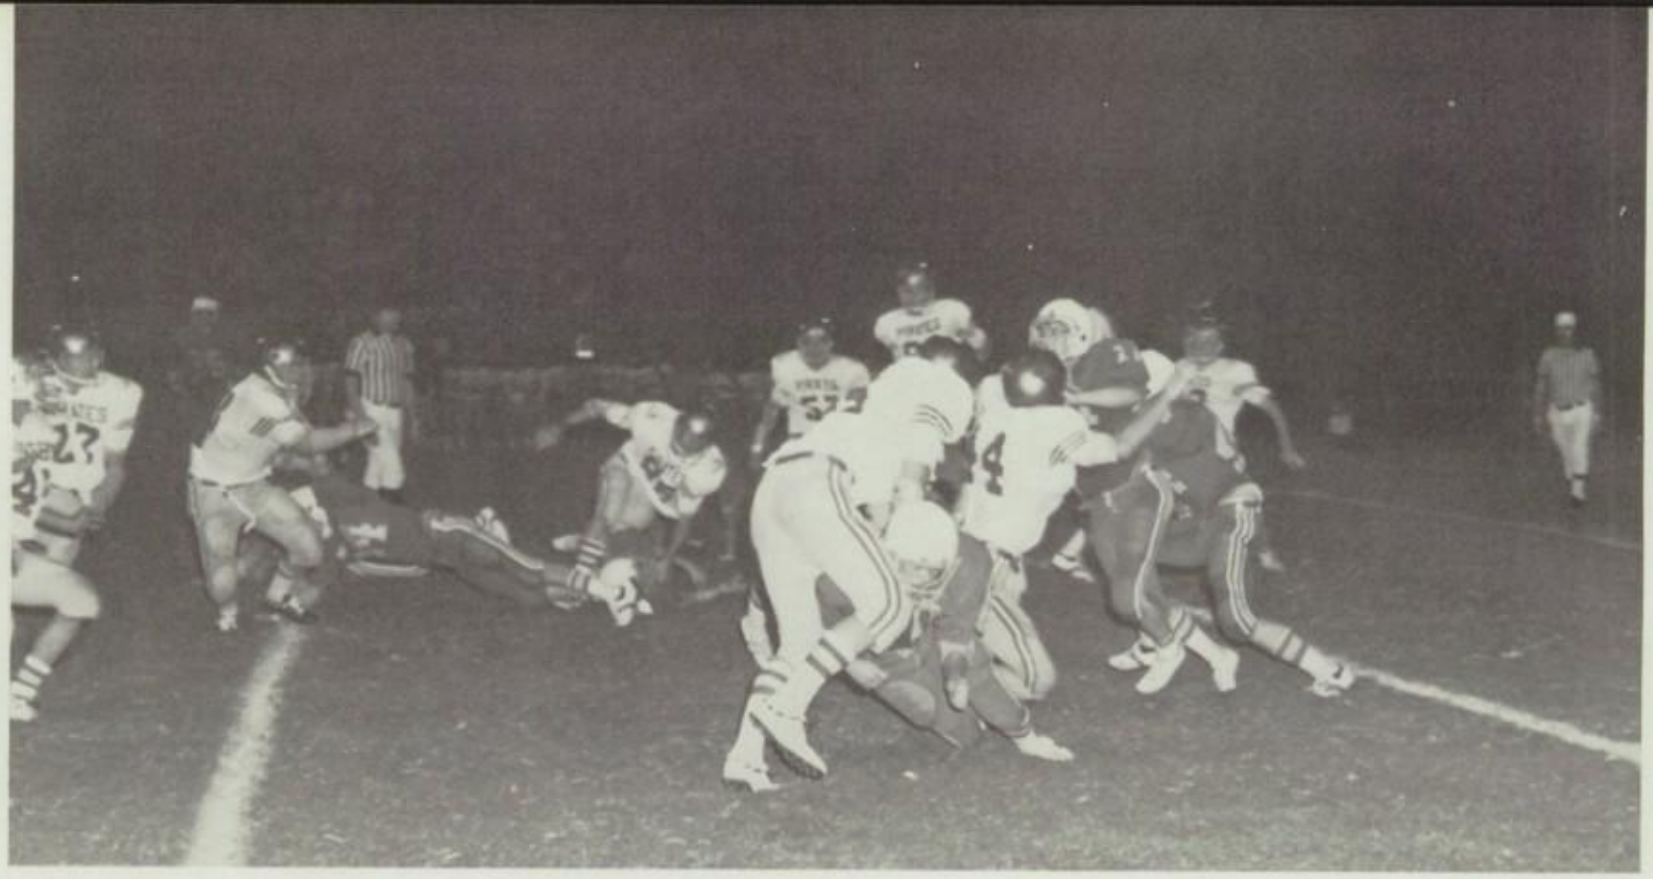
FOOTBALL

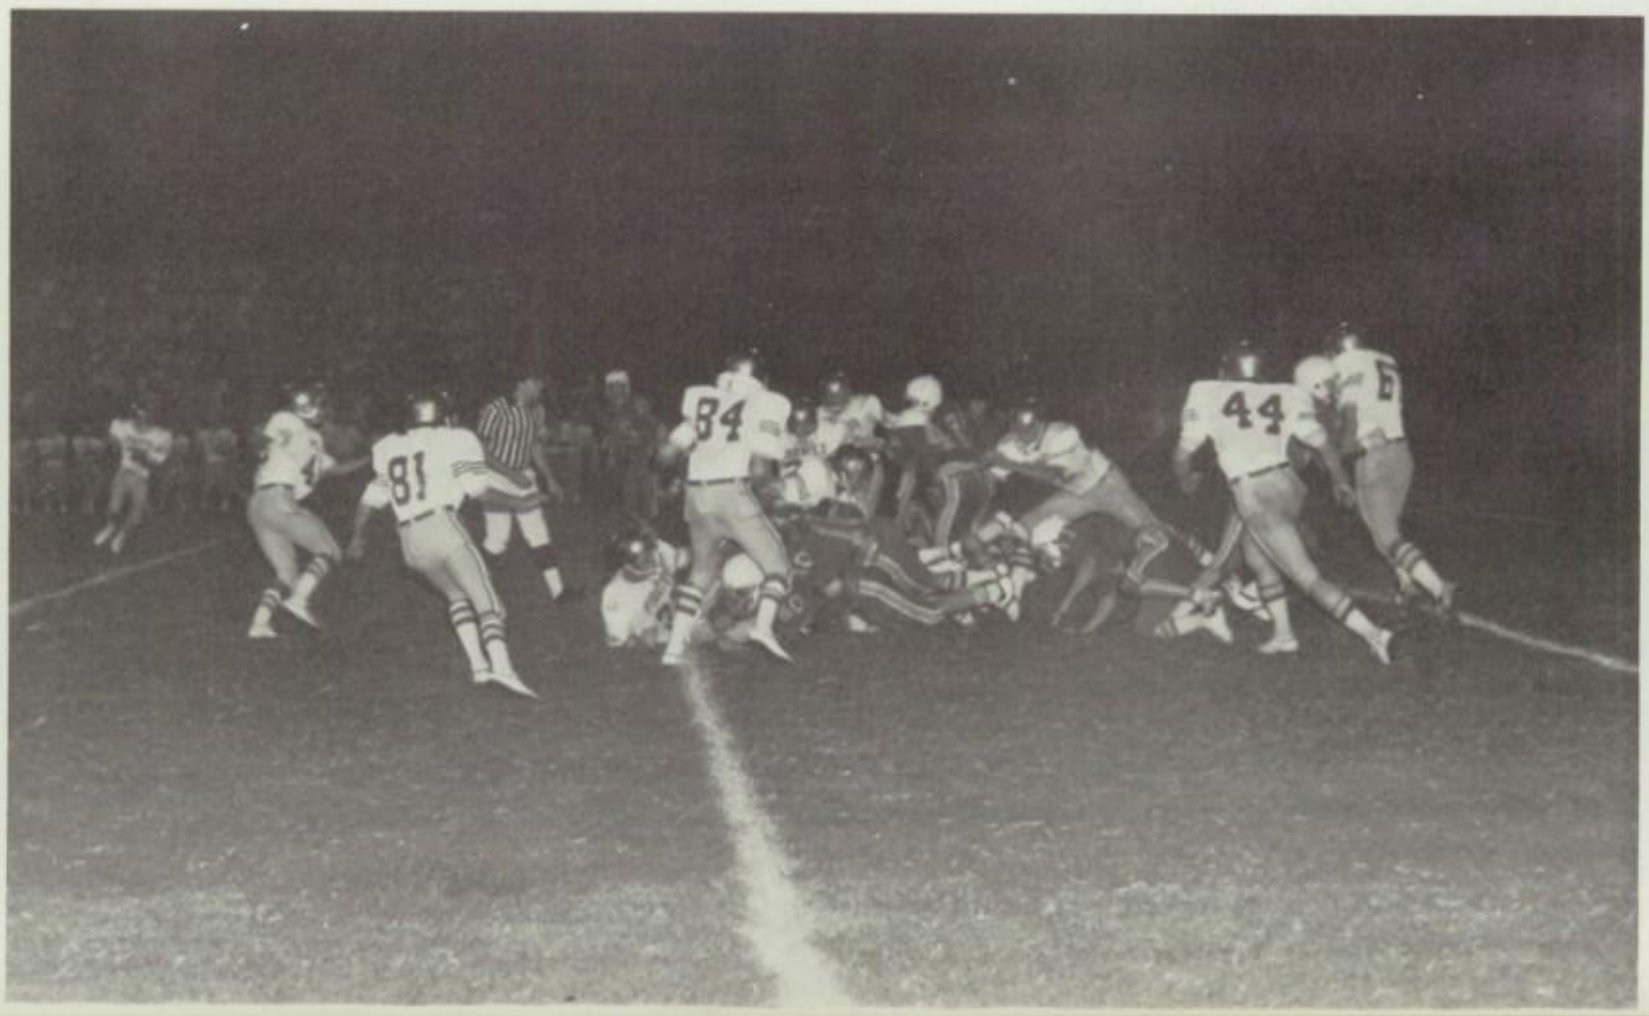


Above — Big play for Mannford in the state play-offs as they stop Oologah for a first down. Which later sets Mannford up for the final score.

Below — Mannford's DOOMS-DAY defence is well known for their GOAL-LINE stands, however, here thay stopped Oologah at midfield, to take the game away from the Mustangs.

Mannford's 1977 football season was the most successful ever. They broke all previous records held at Mannford. Although Mannford was beat out in the state play offs by Beggs, their pride for their season was amazing and their leadership overwhelming. Coach Ballard stated that it was the best group of senior leaders he had ever coached, and most will agree. But behind every successful football team there is a coach who is always pushing them to the limit, and that was what Coach Ballard was noted for. But next year is a different story, Mannford will be moving up to 2A and we wish the best of luck to them.

Center — Mannford shows their spirit before the game as Coach Ballard gets the team high with a few words like, "All I want is 100% from each of you and we will win."



Best Records in School's History

Mannford boy's basketball season was an exciting one. The team worked their way up to regionals where they were beaten by Prague 56 to 52. The team worked hard to get as far as they did. Their hopes for state championship team was let down but they have hope for next year.

Good offense and defense earned the Mannford girls the best record in the history of the school 22-3. They took third place in the Oilton Tournment and first place in the Cleveland Tournment.

The Marching Band Of Pirates is growing and changing each year. 1977-78 saw the band add to its ranks a "corps-style" flag team.

Practices began in early August and continued through November, with at least 10 hours practice each week. The Band was rewarded for its efforts by winning numerous trophies and high rankings at various parades and contests.

Besides being our president for the year, Teresa has participated in two Tulsa plays, "J. B. " and "A Christmas Carol." Thank you, Teresa for a fantastic performance. For the Thespians' initiation, they went to see the mimeartist, Marceal Marceau. The Thespians are losing a great sponsor, worker, and a very special friend. Good luck, Ms. Smith.

They appeared on the John Chick Show and sang at a state wide Choral festival in Tahlequah. The group participated in District contest, a men's quartet rated I and two soloists received I's. Learning to do,
Doing to learn,
Earning to live,
Living to serve.

This is the motto of the FFA and stands for what they strive for. The Mannford FFA Chapter believes in leadership, citizenship, and cooperation in achieving their goals and many awards they have won. The Chapter has worked very hard in preparing for contests, livestock shows, speech contests, State and National conventions. They contribute much of their success to three things, decisions, determination and dedication to the fact that they are the number one Chapter in the State of Oklahoma.

The Pride staff was very busy this year promoting school spirit and pride. They recognized students' achievements, reflected their interests and activities, and provided them an opportunity to express their opinions.

Some of the activities they participated in were Journalism Day at Oklahoma State University, Press Day at Northeastern Oklahoma State University, sold homecoming mums, carnations on Valentines Day, and had a booth at the Halloween carnival.

They published eight issues, with features, sports, and student interest articles. New this year was a two-color layout.

Seniors '78

The Senior Class of 1978 experienced the mixture of emotions that always comes with the last year of high school and the beginning of a new life. There is a sadness of leaving the old school behind and all the friends made over the years, yet there is an exhileration at finally making it. Some seniors are scared and don't want to leave the safety of M.H.S. where they know what they can get away with and how to stay out of deep trouble when they do get caught.

After the diplomas are handed out and everyone is finished crying and hugging each other, the Seniors realize that THIS IS IT!! They are now on their own. Some will continue their education at college, some go right to work, and yet others will go into the army or get married. There are so many possibilities for their lives, but is the world quite ready for our Seniors of '78?

Juniors

A Touch of Class

This title lives up to what it says. When it comes to raising money for the Prom, the Juniors put forth a 100 percent effort. Besides working at the concession stand at basketball games, candy sales, building the float (which won second place), and the carnival, the Juniors have set a new school record by selling more magazines than any other Junior Class.

I, Joy Hover, Editor of this Yearbook would like to thank everyone connected with the publication of this book. My staff and I express a spicial thanks to all the students, teachers, and business people who encouraged us.

I would like to recognize those diligent members of my staff who stayed after school was out, Nokosiee Marshall, Chris Fuller, Leticha Marshall, and of course, Marsha Casey, our advisor.

The book begins with an open chest and from it flows, throughout the book, the events of this school year and now, at the end, it is closed.
